About the Margaret River Wine Association (MRWA)

The charter of the Association is to represent the interests of the Margaret River wine industry and promote Margaret River wine.

On behalf of its members, the Margaret River Wine Association Board is responsible for the governance, stewardship and the progressive attainment of its constitutional objectives whose overarching strategic focus and intent being: “To consistently position Margaret River as one of the world’s most compelling regional fine wine experiences.”

The Margaret River Wine Association was started by a group of winemakers back in the late 1970’s, the Margaret River Grape Growers & Winemakers Association as it was known then, was incorporated in 1982 and at that time had only a handful of members. Today the Association has over 280 members who continue to see solid growth and represent 60% of Western Australian wine exports valued at $29.9M.
