Best wines showed savouriness, balanced acid to fruit sweetness.

Crisp and crunchy some texture - perfect rose. Nice class to start the day's judging but excessive sweetness in some wines.

Not an easy class in the conditions, however the Golds represent vibrant fruit and ripe tannins.
A 50% strike rate and maybe a few Bronze will rate Silver next time.

The 2010 wines showed freshness, balanced alcohol, integrated tannins.
The 2009 wines by contrast showed dead fruit and premature ageing.
Solid class but again proves how well Merlot enhances other varieties.

Overall a top class. But top wines good and a few at the other extreme.
3 Golds - all different but shiraz at the core. That is spice, red fruit and medium bodied.
Poor wines were developed, tomato paste flavours and unsympathetic oak.

A real fruit salad. Not quite sure why Cabernet blends in with Nebbiolo and Grenache. However, top Gold what the region does best and the other Gold something for the future.

A number of very good, juicy wines spoiled by poor oak. These styles are about fruit - oak shouldn't play a part.

A class of two halves, top wines excellent but a lot of poor wines. Poor due to unripe fruit, poor oak and VA issues. Top wines in two styles: two Golds - ripe, perfect colour, spice fruit, and in contrast, wine 1 - earthy, sweet shiraz.
