Strong diverse class – as expected. However, wines that weren't pointed were reduced, sulphides and some hard acid. Yet top wines show great length, great balance, complexity and huge drinkability. Well done!

Disappointing class – Dilute, simple wines with a lack of definition.

However top wines showed diversity of styles – One textural and slick and the other crisp, crunchy and zingy.

Both great Margaret River blends.

The Savagnin a highlight - Steven Spurrier was especially a fan of this.
Balance of class fair with sugar and poor ferment issues.

A great class to judge, Indicating strong vintages.

Gold medals will need cellaring to show quality.

Unfortunately also too many faded and prematurely developed wines suggesting overripe fruit.

56	Churchview Estate	Churchview St Johns Cabernet, Malbec, Merlot, Petit Verdot	2011
58	Edwards Wines Pty Ltd	Tigers Tale Cabernet Merlot	2011

2011 – This bracket was tough to judge as if these wines were an after thought. These wines should be drinkable now but not so – Hard tannins, hard acid for current release wines, they are not approachable.

2010 – Two solid golds with the top one maybe a surprise.

Obviously a good year however some problems showed such as poor or excessive oak and gum leaf characters.

2010 - Great batch of wines showing a very fine vintage. Well made wines, restrained use of oak, very fine tannin and more savoury in structure - Bloody Delicious.

2011 - Overall consistent but some overt oak.
Gold 2011 was superb.

Perhaps there's some liberty taken as to what constitutes a single vineyard.

This needs to be defined as many of these wines lacked definition, were faulty and lacked drinkability. However the gold was a spectacular wine full of texture yet restraint and complex. A fabulous food wine – Bravo!

A Fairly strong class. Top golds slightly different styles - a 100% cabernet and a blend. Blend won out on the day.

Wines down pointed were advanced and poor oak.
