A class consistant with wines of drinkability but little finesse to elevate the wines further.
Overt greenery, soupy texture and under/over ripeness a theme.
Best wine showed perfume and structural tannin.

An exciting class to judge with best examples set between opulent, yet balanced and fine, seamless, elegant wines.

'Lunch time claret' styles look good though not always complex, but pleasing to see them in the mix.

Best wines showing medium bodied, guiding tannins, complexity yet restraint - effortless and wonderfully drinkable wines. Wines that show overt oak, sour/sweet, greenery and alcohol didn't fare well.

Hoping that best examples from this class show more complexity, freshness and tension from tannin (fruit!) and youthful acidity.

19	RD and FA Dossor	Rocky Ponds Margaret River Shiraz	2010
7	Streicker	Streicker Bridgeland Block Syrah	2010

A work in progress with 2009 + 2010 showing promise but not quite the extra finesse, carry of fruit character, seamless flow or complexity take them to the next level yet..... Sweetness in leaner wines was overt, as with excess oak and sour/sweet ripeness issues.
