JUDGING PROCESS

A. Trophies will only be awarded to Gold medal winning wines. In the instance that more than one gold medal is awarded in a class, only the top pointed gold will be eligible for a trophy.

Gold	95 points and over

AUDIT REQUIREMENTS

The 2022 Margaret River Wine Show audit procedures have been based with reference to the Australian Society of Viticulture and Oenology (ASVO) Wine Show Committee audit recommendations as laid down by the 15th Australian Wine Industry Technical Conference (www.asvo.com.au).

Pre-Show Audit

One sample bottle (without charge) of the audit wine will be taken for assessment alongside the entered exhibit by the Chair of Judges.

Post Show Audit

Following the presentation of Awards, a further random selection of all entered wines (including Award and/or non-Award winning wines) may be made to ensure compliance with the 2022 Margaret River Wine Show Exhibitor's Schedule rules and regulations.

EXHIBITOR TASTING

Due to space and liquor license regulations, two sessions will be held and tickets will be required for entry.

Tickets are issued as follows:

- 1 – 10 entries = two tickets

2022 John Tate Memorial Innovation Award presented by Miles from Nowhere

Beginning in 2022, the John Tate Memorial Innovation Award personifies the legacy of the late John Tate, and all he accomplished for the Margaret River wine industry.

John Tate was a true innovator of the region for his time. He led an industry wide viticulture improvement program in trellising, brought new wine styles to the region and new plantings in Jindong. He revolutionised the marketing, PR and packaging of Margaret River wine for the time, and significantly advanced its production and culture. His legacy lives on in every new vintage of the region.

This award recognises the innovation and advancements that are being brought to the Margaret River wine region, with the goal of developing the region into its unfound potential.

The 2022 winner will be announced at the Langtons Margaret River Wine Show Gala Awards Luncheon.
