MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIR

The Margaret River Wine Show Celebrates its 21st Birthday!

The 2022 Langton's Margaret River Wine Show was chaired by wine writer, Nick Ryan and judged by an outstanding team, from across the country and as far afield as Sweden, with Master of Wine, Madeleine Stenwreth also joining us after her 2020 invitation was postponed.

The judging of 665 exhibits from ninety-two exhibitors took place on Wadandi Boodja, at the Margaret River HEART.

Langton's naming rights partnership, now in its eight year, and support of the Margaret River region is incredibly important to the region. We thank all our sponsors for their support, and welcome Orora Beverage and Burkert Fluid Control Systems who are joining the show for the first time.

We have a wonderful community in Margaret River and are immensely thankful to hard-working team of Stewards, Volunteers and Wine Show Committee who give their time so generously to enable the Show to run so smoothly.

We also thank you, the Exhibitors, for participating in the Langton's 2022 Margaret River Wine Show and we look forward to your return in 2023.

LANGTON'S 2022 MARGARET RIVER WINE SHOW

Proudly brought to you by the Margaret River Wine Association.

The Margaret River Wine Association (MRWA) is the peak body for Margaret River grape growers and winemakers. It was established in the late 1970's as the Margaret River Grape Growers & Winemakers Association and was incorporated in 1982.

The mission of the Association is to build, protect and promote the Margaret River wine brand. With the vision that Margaret River is recognised amongst the world's most compelling fine wine experiences.

MEET THE JUDGES

Nick Ryan - Chair of Judges

Thrown out of university in Adelaide and moving to Sydney, Nick Ryan used the knowledge he'd gained raiding his old man's cellar to land a job with one of Sydney's leading wine merchants.

Realising that writing about it was easier than lifting it has led him to where he is now. He's the wine columnist for The Australian, a regular contributor to Gourmet Traveller Wine and The Robb Report, and he writes a weekly column musing on life for Adelaide's Sunday Mail.

He has judged in many Australian and international wine shows and has been the Chair of Judges at the Barossa Valley and Langhorne Creek wine shows, and is currently the Chair of the Clare Valley Show and Deputy Chair of the Royal Adelaide Wine Show.

He is a graduate of the prestigious Len Evans Tutorial and a highly sought-after speaker and presenter.

He has out-fished Julian Langworthy on several occasions.

Now based in the Clare Valley, Nick is excited by wines that are just as interesting by the fourth glass as they are at the first and would give it all up to play one game for the Port Adelaide Football Club.

Madeleine Stenwreth MW - International Judge

Madeleine Stenwreth is a Master of Wine and an international wine consultant based in Sweden with experience in nearly every aspect of the wine business. She became a Master of Wine in 2008 and received the Quinta do Noval Award for her MW dissertation "The effect of altitude on Malbec in Mendoza".

Prior to setting up her consultancy in 2010, she was working as Quality & Product Development Manager for one of the leading wine importers in the Nordic market, with a focus on blending wines together with winemakers all over the world with the aim of creating new business and improving the quality of their existing portfolio. She has also been the wine buyer for the Swedish alcohol retailing monopoly (Systembolaget), worked as marketing manager for Wines of South Africa (WOSA), and has a broad experience in the hospitality industry as restaurant manager, F&B manager, and head-sommelier.

Madeleine consults to high profile wine producers on product development, inspires and challenges winemakers on blending and quality & style strategy. She also acts as an advisor and educator for their export managers, sales- and marketing teams, including their key clients. She is frequently invited to join winemakers in presenting their wines to the press, sommeliers, and trade internationally as she adds an honest and respected opinion with an objective overview of each wine in a local, as much as a global context.

Cliff Royle Winemaker & General Manager - Flametree Wines

After completing a Business Degree and working for several years in wine retail, Cliff Royle decided to go back to university to complete a Bachelor of Applied Science (Viticulture & Winemaking) at Charles Sturt University NSW and set his sights on a career in winemaking.

With over two decades of winemaking experience under his belt, Cliff brings an intimate knowledge of Margaret River winemaking to his role. Prior to Flametree, he was Chief Winemaker at Voyager Estate in Margaret River, where he was responsible for winery operations over a ten year period that saw the winery more than double in size. Under his leadership, Voyager Estate received numerous accolades, both at home and overseas.

In terms of personal recognition,

Cliff was awarded Winemaker of the Year by Winestate Magazine in 2003 and was a finalist in Gourmet Traveller's Winemaker of the Year in 2005. Cliff has also been active in wine judging across the country; including Senior Judge at the Royal Melbourne Wine Show and Royal Perth Wine Show over a number of years, as well as judging three years of the James Halliday Chardonnay Challenge. Additionally, he's played a pivotal role in kick-starting the Margaret River Wine Show and was a committee member from the show's inception through to 2019, including in the role of Chair from 2017.

Damian Hutton Chief Winemaker - Nikola Estate

Damian Hutton commenced his lifelong love affair with wine in 1987, under the watchful eye of his Uncle Ron. Ron Page was Houghton's Vineyard Manager and put Damian to work weeding the very vineyards he now returns to at Nikola Estate as Chief Wine Maker and General Manager.

Damian started working in the winery Cellar at Houghton Wines for the 1990 vintage.

In 1997, Damian transferred to Hardy's Tintara in McLaren Vale, to work along side Larry Cherubino and Robb Mann; under the guidance of Stephen Pannell for the 1997-2000 Vintages.

Studying Oenology at Adelaide University, returned to Houghton's to work under Larry Cherubino and Ross Pamment for the 2001 Vintage.

Damian's first role out of university was Assistant Winemaker at Alkoomi in Frankland River, and then to Millbrook Winery in the Perth Hills, as Assistant Winemaker from 2003-2006.

From 2007, Damian Hutton headed winemaking operations at Millbrook Winery as Senior Winemaker, winning Gold medals in every capital city wine show in Australia and trophy's in every regional wine show in WA.

Damian continues to judge in such shows as: Perth Hills Wine Show, Wine show of WA, Swan Valley Wine Show, Boutique Wine Show of WA, Rutherglen Wine Show, Perth Royal Wine Awards.

Daniel Swincer Chief Winemaker - Pernod Ricard Winemakers

Dan Swincer is Chief Winemaker for Pernod Ricard Winemakers Australia guiding one of Australia's leading wine portfolios, including Jacob's Creek, St Hugo, George Wyndham and Orlando Wines that are available in 80 markets across the globe. Based in the Barossa Valley for 16 years he has extensive experience across red, white and sparkling production for PRW and has been lucky enough to travel extensively across the globe spreading the good word on Australian wine.

Dan is passionate about the role of wine shows for the wine industry and has been a panel chair and judge at regional and capital city wine shows across Australia.

Emma Farrelly Director of Wine / State Buildings

For over 19 years, Emma's passion for the wine industry has produced award-winning wine lists across top venues in Perth.

As Director of Wine for the State

Buildings, Emma's invaluable insights and industry-wide network enables her to curate unique wine lists for each of the award-winning restaurants at the State Buildings, including Wildflower, Long Chim, Post, Petition Kitchen and Petition Merchant.

For two years, Emma studied under the guidance of Dr Steve Charters, Master of Wine. Since then, Emma has worked as a Sommelier and consulted on various wine lists and menus, earning her recognition through numerous awards including Gourmet Traveller Wine and her induction into the Ordre des Coteaux de Champagne in 2013.

With her finger firmly on the pulse of the wine industry, Emma was selected as a judge for the Young Gun of Wine Awards (2017, 2018), South Australia's Hot 100 (2017, 2018) and has recently been appointed head wine judge for the national 'Drink Easy' awards.

She was awarded 2017 Sommelier of the Year at the WA Good Food Guide awards and was recently awarded Sommelier of the Year at the 2019 Gourmet Traveller Restaurant awards.

MEET THE JUDGES

Kate Laurie Winemaker & Owner - Deviation Road Wines

Kate Laurie obtained her winemaking qualification at the Lycée Viticole d'Avize, in Champagne whilst working at numerous small houses in the Côte des Blancs and in Burgundy.

After returning to WA Kate joined her parents in Manjimup to work at the family winery Stone Bridge before leaving in 2001 to join her husband Hamish and create Deviation Road Wines in the Adelaide Hills. She continues to produce premium sparkling wine and is dedicated to understanding the nuances of Chardonnay and Pinot Noir in both their sparkling and still styles.

Kate has been judging wine shows around Australia over the past decade, and completed the Len Evans Tutorial in 2016.

She has 3 daughters, and enjoys the luxury of living, working and breathing wine from their own property in the Adelaide Hills.

Liam McElhinney General Manager & Chief Winemaker - Tasmanian Vintners

The kiwi cool climate specialist oversees the super-premium table wine and sparkling portfolios for many of Tasmania's most awarded wine companies. Prior to joining Tasmanian Vintners, Liam spent a decade crafting some of New Zealand's most celebrated wines in both domestic and export markets. Liam's formative winemaking years were spent in the cellars of Hawke's Bay, Maconnais, Alsace and Santa Barbara where a healthy appreciation for cellar hygiene and winery hose management were impressed upon him.

Lisa Jenkins SSommelier and Owner - Fleet Wines

A qualified chef, Lisa made the move early in her hospitality career. Her synergy with food and wine held her in great stead as a top sommelier in Melbourne.

A Len Evans scholar in 2011 was her springboard into the Australian judging circuit, with involvement in both National and Regional shows over the past ten years.

After many years immersed in the wine industry, it was a desire for having a stronger connection to the land, specifically where Justin (Lisa's husband) grew up in the hills of South Gippsland, where the pair bought a 21ha farm and are currently planting it to vineyards.

Adding to these accomplishments Lisa is a mother of two clever young girls, who are her inspiration to pursue the passion to follow her dreams.

Stuart Hordern Senior Winemaker - Brokenwood

Stuart is Senior Winemaker at Brokenwood Wines in the Hunter Valley, where he has worked since 2009. Stuart has judged at numerous regional and national wine shows around Australia and was awarded DUX of the 2016 Len Evans Tutorial.

2022 Langton's Margaret River Wine Show

Class 01

2021 Cabernet Sauvignon

Judges: Stuart Hordern, Damian Hutton, Madeleine Stenwreth, Andrew Bretherton, Larissa Dalli Cani

Comments: Undeniably a victim of the vintage. A lack of fruit ripeness and poor skin condition came through, with boney wines prevalent. The best wines from the vintage are most likely not yet bottled, so there should be more joy next year, Fingers crossed.

Comments: An (expectedly) strong class with many wines standing out for varietal expression, density of fruit with balanced oak and structure. The poorer wines lacked vibrancy, showing early developed characters that weren't expected from a recent and excellent vintage.
Great class to judge, undoubtedly the premier region in the country for this variety

2021 Shiraz / Syrah

Judges: Dan Swincer, Emma Farrelly, Damian Hutton, Henry Wynne, Mark Brown

Comments: A relatively disappointing class. Fruit ripeness and extraction seemed problematic. The best wines showed considered handling, supple fruit and well managed tannin

Comments: A strong line up with the good wines showing excellent balance between fruit weight, oak and reduction. Greener wines appeared worked more than the fruit could handle.
A real pleasure to judge with a very high standard of wines across the class.

Comments: the better wines were fresh, showing detail and complexity. A few wines had overt oak for the age of the wine.

Sauvignon Blanc (any vintage)

Comments: A good class of wines, showing the suitability of the variety to the region. Good diversity of style, top wines balanced fruit, variety and winemaking artifact. Great to see some well worked oaked styles. Attenuation, oak and RS balance is an issue in the lesser wines. The top wine showed great freshness and purity.

Comments: overall a decent bunch of wines from a difficult year. The few stand outs had excellent varietal definition and power, whilst most others were clean and fresh but lacking power.

Comments: Better wines had fruit weight and freshness to balance acidity. Some 2021 wines challenging with lack of varietal fruit weight and density which made acid look too hard.

Comments: A few wines showed green notes and lacked core of fruit. The wines that showed well had varietal definition and balanced fruit weight with good acidity. An interesting array of styles.

2022 Langton's Margaret River Wine Show

Class 23

Sparkling Wine

Judges: Kate Laurie, Liam McElhinney, Madeleine Stenwreth, Chris Gillmore, Brent Carter

Comments: Lovely balance in most wines. Congratulations on the freshness with complexity in the medalled wines. Great to see personality coming through. The two Gold Medal wines were different in style but showed excellent examples of traditional vs contemporary sparkling wines.
