Acknowledgement of Country

The Margaret River Wine Association acknowledges the Wadandi (Saltwater) people as the traditional custodians of this land, and we pay our respects to their Elders past, present and emerging.

Message from the Chair

This year the Endeavour Group 2025 Margaret River Wine Show, under the expert guidance of returning Chair of Judges David Bicknell, Chief Winemaker at Oakridge Wines in the Yarra Valley, attracted some 630 entries from almost 100 exhibitors. Judging was again staged at the Margaret River HEART, on Wadandi Boodja, marking the 6th year at that venue. We sincerely thank David and his dedicated team of fifteen judges and associate judges for their hard work.

For the second year we welcome and thank the Endeavour Group as our naming rights sponsors. Thanks also to new sponsors Pellenc, Voyager Estate and the Fogarty Wine Group, along with all our returning sponsors, without whose support the Margaret River Wine Show would not be the special and successful event which it is.

Our special team of Stewards, Volunteers and Wine Show Committee, who generously volunteer their time, deserve special thanks. Your hard work both before and during the Show is very much appreciated and does not go unnoticed.

Congratulations to all the 2025 Endeavour Group Margaret River Wine Show medal and trophy recipients!

Meet the Judges

CHAIR OF JUDGES, DAVID BICKNELL

Chief Winemaker
- Oakridge Wines

A veteran of 32 Yarra Valley vintages plus harvest winemaking stints in Burgundy, Alsace and Beaujolais, David Bicknell has been the chief winemaker of Oakridge Wines since 2002.

In his spare time he grows grapes for his own family label, Bicknell FC, cooks and absorbs as much football of all codes as he can take.

ADAM WALLS

- Wine Selectors

It was through working in bars and developing a healthy interest in all things distilled that Adam stumbled across the world of wine.

This stumble morphed into 10 years of working with wine in hotels, bars and restaurants across Australia and the UK, followed up by stints in cellar doors in the Hunter Valley.

Adam is a wine buyer for Wine Selectors and is the co-chair of their tasting panel. Adam pens a column for Selector magazine, host's events around the country and is a regular of Channel 10's My Market Kitchen. H

FELEASHA PRENDERGAST

Winemaker
- Evans & Tate

Having finished her bachelor's degree in Viticulture and Oenology in 2013 Feleasha went on to gain winemaking experience in as many places as she could. Doing back-to-back vintages in New Zealand, America, Canada, Australia, and Germany. Chasing a love of Chardonnay and a passion for white wine making ultimately led her to Margaret River.

Her first vintage for the Fogarty family was with Margaret River Vintners working in the cellar and then became the assistant winemaker there for three years. She has now stepped into an Evans and Tate focused winemaking role allowing her to work with some of the best fruit in Margaret River. She is continuously on the quest to learn, evolve and make the best wine from each given year.

Meet the Judges

JACOPO DALLI CANI

Head Winemaker
– McHenry Hohnen Vintners

Born and raised in the picturesque town of Soave in northeastern Italy, Jacopo grew up in a landscape that naturally shaped his passion for winemaking. His journey began at the University of Viticulture and Oenology in Conegliano, where he laid the technical foundation for what would become a global pursuit of wine knowledge that perfectly aligned with his passion for travelling.

After gathering valuable experience in his home country Italy, Jacopo ventured to renowned wine regions around the world completing vintages in Bordeaux, Barossa Valley, New Zealand, and Margaret River. It was the quality of the wines and the rugged beauty of WA that inspired Jacopo to make Margaret River home where he settled in 2011.

Upon joining the McHenry Hohnen team as assistant winemaker in 2016, he was appointed Head Winemaker in 2019.

A graduate of the ARWI AWAC, Jacopo has been actively involved in regional and capital city wine show judging for a decade.

LARISSA DALLI CANI

Cellar Door Manager
- Howard Park Wines

Larissa hails from the Rocky Mountains of British Columbia, Canada and settled in the Margaret River region 10 years ago after an extensive career in the Ski Industry that took her to through numerous countries in South America, Asia and Australasia.

After 7 years of endless winter, she was drawn to the beaches of Margaret River and found a love for local wine culture and Chardonnay. This has led her to work at a handful of the top Cellar Doors in the Margaret River region, including Voyager Estate, Domaine Naturaliste and currently as Cellar Door Manager at Howard Park Wines.

Larissa has been involved in Wine Shows for the past 5 years, judging at both the Margaret River Wine Show and the Wine Show of Western Australia.

Meet the Judges

LAUREN HANSEN

Senior Winemaker
- Penley Estate

Never sitting still and doing things “the way they’ve always been done”, Lauren is a natural collaborator with an inquisitive mind. She was named dux of the Len Evans Tutorial in 2024, formed part of the Wine Australia Future Leaders cohort in 2022 and in 2019 was a recipient of the PIRSA Great Wine Capitals scholarship.

Vintages in Bordeaux, New Zealand, and Austria, as well as working with super-premium producers Balnaves, Brokenwood, and Bannockburn, her resume smacks of quality.

Graduating from the University of Adelaide in 2012, dux of the Bachelor of Viticulture and Oenology, Lauren has learnt the subtleties and nuances of climate and soil alike, as a part of her journey to being one of Australia’s emerging and qualified winemakers.

Today, Lauren Hansen is the senior winemaker at Penley, a board member of Coonawarra Vignerons, and owner of her own small wine label, Bloomfield Wine.

RYAN AGGISS

Chief Winemaker
- Aravina Estate

Born and raised in South West WA Ryan was drawn, a very long time ago, to wines and vines after an electrical apprentice was undertaken. He then went on to study wine science at Charles Sturt University in Wagga Wagga.

Having been fortunate to work alongside some amazing winemakers and viticulturalists during the BRL Hardy and Constellation/Accolade times Ryan was given the opportunity to work at Aravina across both viticulture and winemaking operations.

Being apart of the show system for 12 years he is focused on ensuring they can be used as both an industry quality measure but also aligning consumers understanding about the relevance and importance of these endeavours to ultimately help push wine back to a luxury product mindset and not a low cost beverage on the bottle shop shelves.

Meet the Judges

STEVEN PAUL

General Manager/Director
- Oakdene Wines

Steve is a past President of the Geelong Wine Growers Association, Wine Australia Future Leader and current Committee Chair of the Geelong Wine Show.

TIM DOLAN

Chief Winemaker
- Kaesler Wines

Tim Dolan is the current Chief Winemaker for Kaesler Wines in the Barossa Valley. Prior to joining Kaesler, he was the senior winemaker at Peter Lehmann Wines for nearly 10 years.

Before and after his winemaking studies at Adelaide University, Tim gained vintage experience internationally in Barolo, Napa Valley, and Ontario. In 2018, he was a scholar of the Len Evans Tutorial, where he was awarded the Dux prize.

A diverse selection of wines from what was clearly a challenging vintage. The standout wine was a classic expression of Margaret River — showing freshness, purity, and balance. Several others displayed promising qualities, though some were held back by unresolved tannins or imbalances in fruit ripeness.

Given the reputation of the vintage we approached it with excitement. The best wines still (as they should) looked fresh and bright and vibrant. Hallmark styles. there was a number of forward tired wines in the lineup. Browning colors and tired palates.

Class 6 Comments:

A class that offers so much drinking pleasure. The best wines showing flow, polish and brightness that make them such compelling and easy to drink wines. Some wines did look tired. Perhaps they were made with a 12 month drinking window in mind. Some wines did look too heavy handed on oak.

A class that showed the diversity of Shiraz/Syrah across the region. 6 wines were called back, all of different style. It was nice to see that in general oak use was sensitive and in balance. The gold medal winner had Shiraz warmth yet was bright, vibrant and with great length.

Class 11 Comments:

A class with a diverse array of varieties and styles.

Some exhibits showed lovely freshness on nose, however tannins were unresolved giving astringent flavours. Top two wines were great examples of their varieties.

Brilliant class. Despite being a warmer dry vintage the best wines shone and are world class in their quality. Wines that didn't medal were either green and under fruited or too ripe and oaky.

2025 vintage dominated the call backs with diversity in the styles awarded. The best were expressive on the nose and palate with smart picking decisions giving vibrant wines. There were some deeper coloured, forward wines that looked tired and some under ripe green wines.

Class 19 Comments:

A large class with some clear highlights. The best wines offered intensity of aromatics along with fruit vibrancy, balanced, driving acidity and attractive freshness. Disappointingly a few wines in the class had notable faults including VA.

A class that incites fun! A challenge with multiple varieties at the back end of the class. A gold medal winning Pinot Blanc, Albarino and Vermentino perhaps act as a hint to what the future of varietal diversity is in the region.

Class 26 Comments:

Nice to see some producers giving it a crack. Just watch out for bitter flavours with skin contact styles, it was quite prevalent & goes against what these styles are trying to achieve - drinkability.

Class 27: Alternative Red
