Terms and Conditions

The following conditions apply.

1. Optional plates cannot be affixed to a taxi, omnibus or any other vehicle, which requires specific identifying number plates.
2. Payment in full is required on application.
3. Other than Personalised plates, the successful applicant will be issued with a Certificate of Right to Display and Trade. The plates however, always remain the property of the Chief Executive Officer of Transport.
4. The person entitled to the Certificate of Right to Display and Trade the plates may sell that right. The vendor of the Certificate of the Right to Display and Trade and the purchaser are obliged to complete a Transfer of right to display optional plates form (VL176) and notify the Chief Executive Officer of Transport.
5. A sale can take place at any price to any individual or corporation, but the Certificate of Right to Display and Trade the plates must be transferred in accordance with the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Regulations 2014 .
6. The Department of Transport provides no guarantee that designs or design features will be available in the future.
7. Where design features are no longer available, remake applications will be produced in the design features last available for that series.
8. Plates not attached to a Western Australian licensed vehicle must be stored at a Driver and Vehicle Services (DVS) centre or DVS agent on behalf of the Chief Executive Officer , and a storage fee for each year or part thereof charged to the person entitled to the Right to Display and Trade the plates.
9. The Chief Executive Officer reserves the right to refuse any application he considers to be or may be perceived to be;
 - Offensive
 - Contentious
 - Of sensitive nature
 - In breach of any trade mark
 - For any other reason
10. The applicant warrants that the character combination applied for in no way infringes any third party's intellectual property rights. The applicant indemnifies the Chief Executive Officer and the State in the event of any third party claims for breach of trademark arising from the use of the plate.
